

Separate

Music & Lyrics: Lukas Lundh

Teach me to separate right from wrong
Help me to separate from wrong
Teach me to separate right from wrong
Help me to separate right from wrong

Try as hard as we can
It's not easy to understand His plan
The inner struggle for clarity might seem impossible

Can a lie ever be right
If we spare the ones we love most of all
When the truth is too hard to handle
What do we do

Nothing is ever black or white
Making the choices all the harder
And when our lives are dark as night
How can we ignore it

Teach me to separate right from wrong
Help me to separate from wrong
Teach me to separate right from wrong
Help me to separate right from wrong

What's your ethical philosophy
Is it intention or consequence
Acting out of your conviction, your personal beliefs

If the truth is absolute
Now, how do we interpret it
'Cause people are so different in all parts of our world

Nothing is ever black or white
Making the choices all the harder
And if our lives are bright as day
How can we ignore it

Teach me to separate right from wrong
Help me to separate from wrong
Teach me to separate right from wrong
Help me to separate right from wrong
